I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all people who provided any support to this research.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my mentors, Ms. Diana I. Zotikova (the Vologda Region Department for Technological and Environmental Supervision of Rostehnadzor) and Dr. Aleh Cherp (Central European University), for guidance, advice and support during the fellowship year.

I am grateful to Dr. Gennady A. Motkin and the staff of the Laboratory for market instruments of environmental management, Market Economy Institute, RAS, for many contributions to my thinking on the topic of the research, research methodology, assistance in establishing useful contacts, and provision of relevant materials.

My particular gratitude is to Russian EI experts participated in the survey on the current state of the national EI and interviews during regional case studies: Ms. Galina Gulyaeva, Ms. Irina Vasilyeva, Ms. Lyudmila Stepicheva, Ms. Olga Razbash, Mr. Alexander Fedorov, Dr. Alexander Kosarikov, Dr. Anatoly Bazhaykin, Dr. Alexander Tulupov, Dr. Gennady Motkin, Dr. Ural Ibatullin.

The parliamentary hearings On Environmental Insurance and a workshop on environmental insurance as a policy tool to assure regional security would be hardly possible without substantive contributions by Ms. Irina Vasilyeva, Ms. Lyudmila Stepicheva, Mr. Alexander Fedorov, Dr. Anatoly Bazhaykin, Dr. Nataliya Kovalenko, Dr. Alexander Tulupov, Dr. Gennady Motkin, Dr. Ural Ibatullin, Mr. Oleg Kuznechenkov, and Mr. Andrey Nedre, and Dr. Anatoly Bazhaykin.

My particular gratitude is to Mr. Nikolay Arkhipov and the whole staff of the Environmental Committee of the Vologda Region Legislative Assembly, as well as the staff of the Vologda Region Department for Technological and Environmental Supervision of Rostehnadzor and for support, and assistance in organizing and conducting a workshop in the pilot region.

I wish to acknowledge continuous support, editorial and narrative review assistance of Ms. Leyli Bektashi. Her ideas and comments contributed a lot in the project progress.

I am very grateful to Ms. Viktoria Rodina for kind assistance in preparing project publications. References, background materials, and comments on legal aspects of environmental insurance by Ms. Svetlana Popova is greatly appreciated.

I am very grateful to the staff of the International Policy Fellowships Programme and particularly to Pamela Kilpadi, Krisztina Bakos, Anita Karpati, and Ekaterina Safiyulina, and Galina Nelaeva for their continuous support and assistance during the fellowship year.

Finally, I would like to thank the Open Society Institute for the financial support they provided me with to make this research possible.
